JOHANSON TRANSPORTATION SERVICE AWARDED BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU (BBB) ETHICS AWARD FOR MARKETPLACE EXCELLENCE

(Fresno, CA) April 22, 2013 -- Johanson Transportation Service (JTS), a leading third-party logistics provider, has announced that they were awarded the 2013 Better Business Bureau (BBB) Ethics Award for Marketplace Excellence in the large company category. JTS was nominated along with 42 businesses in this category, which is based on employee size. This award is presented annually to companies demonstrating excellence and a commitment to ethical business practices both in operations and in terms of integrity, reliability and responsiveness to employees, vendors and customers.

The judging was done by professors from The Craig School of Business at Fresno State University, Heald College, University of California, Merced and DeVry University.

“The businesses nominated all serve wholesale and retail markets in nine counties in Central California,” says President Larry Johanson. “To make the final cut is an honor JTS can be extremely proud of. This award is a testament to our staff’s hard work and adherence to our founding principles of Experience, Integrity, Gratitude, and Respect. I am deeply appreciative that four decades later, our staff is still personally and professionally demonstrating the moral fabric of our company to our clients and to the community we serve.”

JTS will represent Central California in the 2014 Better Business Bureau International Torch Awards.
