JTS named 2022 NASTC Best Broker of the Year

Fresno, CA – November 1, 2022 — JTS (Johanson Transportation Service), a leading third-party logistics provider, JTS has announced that they are the recipient of the 2022 NASTC (National Association of Small Trucking Companies) Best Broker of the Year award.

Thomas Hawker, JTS Director of Pacific Northwest, proudly accepted the award on behalf of the company at the NASTC Annual Conference in Nashville, TN on October 20, 2022.

“The award recognizes the broker who demonstrates the very highest level of quality in partnership with NASTC member trucking companies and one who has a superior track record and credit history”, says David Owen, President of the NASTC.

“It is a privilege to be named 2022 NASTC Best Broker of the Year, and we are grateful to be distinguished with this honor. Small- to medium-sized carriers are the bedrock of our business, and we greatly value our NASTC members for providing the reliable, top-tier service that has earned us the trust of our shipping customers,” says Larry Johanson, President/CEO of Johanson Transportation Service.

About NASTC

The National Association of Small Trucking Companies (NASTC) was founded in 1989 by David Owen and Buster Anderson to help establish an active association for small trucking companies, nationwide, that serves as an advocate for, a consultant to, and a source of collective buying power for its member companies. NASTC leads a strong lobbying effort on behalf of small trucking companies and, like our members, is committed to safety, compliance and technological advancements that improve and simplify the transportation industry. NASTC is about helping our member companies save money! That is our mission. Every program or service we develop is designed to maximize efficiency, and help our members bottom line! www.nastc.com
