FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bly Named “Rockstar of the Supply Chain”

Fresno, CA – February 12, 2024 — JTS (Johanson Transportation Service), a premier third-party logistics provider, announces that Vice President of Corporate Operations, Alicia Bly, has been named as a recipient of the 2024 Rockstars of the Supply Chain Award in the Top Shippers Category. This award from Food Logistics recognizes influential individuals in the industry whose achievements, hard work and vision have shaped the global cold food supply chain.

“Supply chain rock stars are the backbone of the cold food chain. The words used to describe many of this year’s winners range from collaborative, passionate, innovative, and forward-thinking to inspired, driven and dependable,” says Marina Mayer, editor-in-chief of Food Logistics and Supply & Demand Chain Executive. These winners continue to go above and beyond to improve food safety, enhance efficiency and disrupt supply chain disruptions.”

President Larry Johanson says, “I am proud of the hard work Alicia has done with lobbying, speaking at industry events, and how she has taken the initiative to strengthen her knowledge of carrier compliance and industry issues over the years through networking and participating on transportation industry committees and board of director positions. She is a strong, intelligent, self-driven leader who has helped propel our company’s position as a leading third-party logistics provider.”

Ms. Bly is responsible for the daily operations at JTS, as well as managing new customer onboarding, contract reviews, negotiations, and insurance. She is also involved in corporate sales initiatives, technology advancements, and conducts oversight of JTS brokerage divisions.

Recipients of this year’s award will be profiled in Food Logistics’ Jan/Feb 2024 print issue.
